Voice of GOD

Sri Mayuranathar Temple, Mayiladuthurai

This is the 156th Thevara Paadal Petra Shiva Sthalam and the 39th sthalam on the south side of river Kaveri in Chozha Nadu. This is one of the 6 Shiva equivalents of Kashi. Since Ambal in the form of Peahen worshiped Lord Shiva of this temple, the place is called Mayuram which turned into Mayiladuthurai Lake Mylapore at Chennai.

Thirugnanasambandar came to this temple after worshipping Lord Shiva of Thiruvaduthurai, then he went to Thiru Vila Nagar. When Appar came along with Thirugnanasambandar up to Kolakka, Thirunavukkarasu Swamigal came to this temple after worshipping Lord Shiva of Thiruchemponpalli. Moolavar : Sri Mayuranathar, Consort : Sri Abayambigai. Some of the important features of this temple are as follows.

The temple faces east with a 9-tier Rajagopuram and there is an entrance on the north side too. There are two Dwajasthambas. (Three temporary Dwajasthambas are also seen on the three sides of the outer praharam). The second level Rajagopuram is of 3 tiers. In koshtam, Narthana Vinayagar, Natarajar, Aalinganamurthy, Mouna Dakshinamurthy (Dakshinamurthy is Medha Dakshinamurthy/mouna and gave upadesam to Rishaba Devar in yoga posture), Lingothbavar, Brahma, Durgai, Gangavijarsanar / Gangadhara and Pichadanar.

In Prakaram Chandran & Suryan worshiped Lingas, Mayilammai, Pathanjali, Viyakrapadar, Sekkizhar, Nalvar, Saptamatrikas, Subramaniam, Kuthambai Siddhar, Vinayagar, Sahasra Linga, Pancha Lingas (Indran, Agni, Vayu, Varuna, Yaman worshiped Lingas), Mahavishnu, Mahalakshmi, Gajalakshmi, Arunachaleswarar, Natarajar sabha, Navagrahas, Saneeswarar, Bhairavar and Suriyan.

Temples for Sundaeswarar, Maha Ganapathy are too big in mandapam), Natha Sharma, Abayambigai, Aadhi Mayuranathar. A saree is wrapped for the Linga in the Anavidhyambigai sannadhi. Ambal is in a standing posture. Aadi Poora Amman is also in the Praharam Chidambaram Swamigal has sung hymns in praise of Lord Muruga of this temple as Mayura Vahanan in his Kshethra Kovai Pillai Thamizh.

HISTORY AND INSCRIPTIONS

Since Thirugnanasambandar has sung in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple, the original temple might have existed before the 7th Century. Later the same was reconstructed as a stone temple/KaRRali during Chozhas and later extended during Vijayanagaras.

There are 16 inscriptions recorded from this temple. The inscriptions belong to Kulothunga-I, Rajathirajan-II, Kulothunga-III, Rajaraja-III and Jadavarman Sundara Pandyan. As per the inscriptions Lord Shiva was called Mayiladuthurai Udayar. Except for 5, the rest of the inscriptions record the Temple of Ayyarappar, which is southwest of the Mayuranathar temple. This temple was under Jayankonda Chozhavalanattu Thiruvazhunthur Nattu Kulothunga Chozhan Kuthalam alias Thiruvaiyaru. The inscriptions also record the Ayyarappar installation, Kulothunga Chozhan exempted the Taxes (Chunkam Thavirtha Chozhan), and a Vikrama Chozha Thirumadam existed Rajaraja Chozha-III's 31st (29+1+1) reign year inscription records the gift of 2000 kasu deposited with the Sthanattar, of the temple of Thiru Mayiladuthurai Udayar, In Tiruvalundur nadu to meet the expenses of daily worship, sacred bath / thirumanjanam, vasthiram / apparels and offerings / naivedyam to Goddess Bhuvanapati Nachiyar consecrated by the donor in the thirunadai maligai/prahara of the temple by Ambalankoyil-Kondan ARRapodaikkudavinan of Sambangudi.

Your Stars This Year

Aries : True love might be standing right in front of you in the guise of a friendship that you have always shared. Reflect upon who is around you this week, as building up feelings that can reach sky-high might just crack through a simple conversation. Do not take for granted what is in your heart, watching for an expression.

Taurus: You have been feeling lonely, but pretty soon, that is going to change. The universe is guiding you toward a relationship that is quietly developing in the background. It could eventually be turned into an even closer friendship, but let's leave that till later to talk about. Have those brave conversations and build a genuine.

Gemini: This week, love might stir up in unexpected places, that is, in the office setting. Even the briefest interchange, a casual chat, or just because of an unprovoked, unpredictable moment could be what sets something new in motion. So, if a little whisper of romance gets on.

Cancer: A grand romantic fix might be forthcoming, but you never know if you might wait until the next time for someone to pounce on you. Not on such a week, for this is when love isn't supposed to happen on your doorstep. It could be a casual meet-up, a work event, or just enjoying yourself.

Leo: Love welcomes you to redefine what you desire. Loopback this week and look into your past relationships. Are you seeking thrills at the expense of true compatibility? Sometimes, your heart is broken because you are running after passion rather than stability. Choose someone who makes you happy.

Virgo: It sometimes happens that one feels let down in love, which is quite fair albeit hard. Be patient this week because love works on a never-before-known clock, and many times, a delay usually indicates that something better is just around the corner. That the real one may not have shown up does not mean it will never come.

Libra: A significant person may enter your life this week—maybe not with fireworks but surely with something better—peace, trust, and understanding. Love sometimes begins in a calm but constant connection. Do not over think it, but enjoy it as it comes. A meaningful relationship need not be forced or rushed.

Scorpio: New people can start to feel repetitious, especially when nobody seems to really be catching one's eye. But love is not a race; it is a journey, and the right person is seeking you as well while you are seeking them. Instead of focussing on what has not worked before, have faith that the universe is aligning things.

Sagittarius: There may be something more to a friendship, but to avoid rejection, one might need some clear words. So, see this week as your chance to reflect and work out if you're actually head over heels or romantically inclined towards this person. Love should bring happiness, not confusion.

Capricorn: Love might just surprise you this week, especially if distance has been keeping you apart. The kindred universe will open doors wider and set up agreements. Long-distance love is hard but worth it. Love of this magnitude is impossible to crush. Stop for a moment.

Aquarius : New connections make the heart go pitter-patter; then you speed down the rabbit hole! This is exciting at times as it is predominantly a process of attraction followed by infatuation. So, attention should be shifted to what more there is to see as weeks slide by. What are the various qualities and lacks of this person.

Pisces: If your relationship has taken a nosedive because of lethargy, maybe it's time to look deeper. Love is constantly in motion; sometimes it just needs a little tending to keep evolving. Unspoken feelings distance partners from one another; hence, be honest with yourself and your partner about what you wish. Talk to him/her about your worries and listen carefully.

PREDICTION FOR THIS WEEK
29.03.2025 TO 04.04.2025

The creator of the unmatched poem

The knowledge of the Gita has always been called 'the knowledge of Brahm', 'God's song' or 'moral speech'. It has never been called 'Shri Krishna's knowledge'. It is because there is no mention of knowledge being given by Krishna in any shloka of the Gita. Bhagwad Gita itself means the song of God, which has been spoken by God directly. This is why, the word 'Bhagvaanuvaaac (words of God)' is mentioned only in the Gita. 'Krishnauvaac (words of Krishna)' hasn't been mentioned anywhere.

Even if the word 'Krishna' is written at various places in the Gita, it is the praise of the Supreme Father Supreme Soul Himself. We know that the Gita isn't ordinary; rather, it is a song or poem composed by God. The way a poet adorns his poem, the feelings that he fills in it aren't ordinary. Just like that, in this poem created by God as well, there are many of such feelings that have been narrated with ornamental words. The place where the name 'Krishna' is appearing, it is a qualitative word in reality.

Krishna means the one who is dark or the one who attracts. Both these meanings are applicable only to Mahadev Shankar, the corporeal form of God of the Gita. Because of being in the corporeal form till the end of the Iron Age, he has a dark form. And he is considered as the favourite [deity] of the entire world, of the living creatures, whether they are deities, demons or those belonging to any category. In the scriptures, Mahadev Shankar has been considered as the source of inspiration who attracts the life of all the sanyasis and in the form of the administrator of the household path along with his entire family (including his wife Parvati, his sons Ganesha and Kartikeya, his devotee Nandi and other Rudragan), he has certainly been considered as the best attraction by the followers of the household path. No special attraction is seen among the sanyasis or the demons for Shri Krishna. This is why, the word 'Krishna' will indeed be considered as qualitative.

'God' is no ordinary position or name. The word 'Bhagwaan' is translated as 'the Supreme Personality', who is the Supreme Lord, there is nobody above Him. It is mentioned in the Gita 'O Arjun, the one who acquires the wealth of knowledge! There is nothing superior to Me in all the three worlds including this world.' (Chapter 7, 7th shloka) Nevertheless, Shri Krishna is always shown worshipping Mahadev. The one who is worshiped is superior to the one who worships. Therefore, these great sentences can't be those of Shri Krishna. This is why, the deity Shri Krishna can't be considered as the form of God. Mahadev alone is supreme among all the deities.

That Shiva-Shankar Bholenath is never shown worshipping anyone, neither in pictures, idols nor in stories. It is because nobody is superior to Him at all.

It means, it becomes clear that Mahadev Shankar alone is the form of the Giver of the knowledge of the Gita, the Supreme Father Shiva; it isn't Shri Krishna. This is why, churning the knowledge of the Gita is essential, it is only then we will come to know who the actual Giver of the knowledge of the Gita is, the one who is called 'Har Har Mahadev', the one who takes away the sorrow of the entire world. Cables blocking pavement

Tangle of cable wires left behind by telecom and broadband service providers on footpaths and cycle tracks are tripping up the unwary across the city. Residents near by P T Rajan Salai complaint that their protests are met with indifference by the civic authorities and the service providers continue their sloppy ways with impunity.

Pedestrians and cyclists are unable to use the sidewalk-cum-cycle track because of the cables left behind. 'The cables have remained here for more than days. No one should be allowed to misuse public space like this. Pedestrians end up risking their lives walking on the road because their feet get tangled in the cables', said a resident of K K Nagar.

GCC parks to have stalls selling nutritious food

The Chennai Corporation will set up stalls for selling hygienic and nutritious food to visitors in the parks owned by the civic body. Mayor R. Priya on Wednesday said self-help groups will be permitted to set up food stalls. The civic body maintains more than 700 parks in 15 zones of the city. The civic body has identified 10 parks, including Natesan Park in ward 133 in Kodambakkam zone to develop facilities for persons with disabilities.

The Chennai Corporation will modernise bus stands and build new bus shelters in the city. The civic body will also modernise archives for birth and death records.

It is learnt that while travelling along the main route the train would stop in 12 stations such as Kottai or Fort, Park or Poonga, Egmore, Mambalam, Guindy, St Thomas Mount or Parangimalai, Tambaram, Perungalathur, Guduvancheri, Potheri, Singaperumal Koil and Paranur. This train service would be available from Monday to Saturday. This was according to the recommendations released by Railways.

Express buses with camera and SOS button

The express buses, equipped with features like cameras, SOS buttons, and modern firefighting systems, will be in service by the end of April. The Tamil Nadu government is taking a serious approach in purchasing new buses for transport corporations.

In that regard, 50 express buses are coming into use based on the tender issued last year. In this regard, Shanthapriyan Kamaraj, founder of the Government Transport Activists Organization, said: Express buses are increasingly equipped with modern facilities on par with private buses. Accordingly, the automatic fire extinguishing system in the express buses that will be put into use is being looked at as a priority. This will trigger an alarm if even a small amount of smoke is detected inside the bus. If it is a fire, the fire will be extinguished using chemicals as soon as the driver presses the button.

If the fire spreads too far, the fire extinguishing system will activate without the driver being aware of it. Previously, this system was only installed in the engine, but is now also installed in the passenger compartment. A camera has been installed to enable the vehicle to be driven backwards. An emergency button (SOS) and reading lights have been installed near every seat, he said.

In this regard, Rapid Transit officials said, "29 AC buses and 21 non-AC buses will be in service by the end of April," press release said.

A landmark soon

Chennai is all set to welcome a new architectural marvel! Chennai Metro Asset Management Limited (CMAML), a Special Purpose Vehicle jointly formed by Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) and Tamil Nadu Industrial Development Corporation (TIDCO), has signed a monumental contract to develop the prestigious Chennai Central Tower. The project, awarded to M/s Renaatus Projects Private Limited, is valued at Rs. 349.99 Crore (excluding GST). The Letter of Acceptance (LOA) was issued recently. Agreement marks a significant milestone for this transformative venture.

The Chennai Central Tower is a landmark project that symbolizes Chennai's transformation into a global metropolis and multi-modal hub. Strategically located near the Chennai Central Railway Station, this 27-storey architectural marvel will seamlessly integrate connectivity, modern amenities, and sustainability.

Designed to meet international green building standards, the tower incorporates eco-friendly construction materials, energy-efficient systems, renewable energy, and water conservation measures, setting a benchmark for sustainable urban development.

Envisioned as a vibrant hub of activity, the Chennai Central Tower will offer thoughtfully designed spaces for business, leisure, and hospitality, creating a dynamic environment for residents, commuters, tourists, and visitors.

With its state-of-the-art infrastructure and strategic location, it aims to enhance the city's connectivity, economy, and quality of life. Redefining Chennai's skyline, the tower symbolizes growth, innovation, and opportunity, standing as a proud landmark of the city's ambition and transformation.

12 stops for the a/c electric train

It is known that air-conditioned electric train would be operated along Chennai Beach and Tambaram. Recommendations have been made to provide 12 stops for these trains.

There were many demands from the passengers for 12 stops between Chennai Beach and Tambaram.

Information gathered is that this 12 coach a/c train could accommodate as many as 1116 seated passengers, 3798 standing passengers for a total of 4914 passengers. This electric train could travel at a maximum speed of 110kmph. There is no announcement regarding when it would be operated and its fares etc till now.

The train would depart from Chennai Beach at 7am, 3:45pm and 7:35 pm and would reach Tambaram at 7:48am, 4:20pm and 8:30pm. It would reach Chengalpet at 8:35am in the morning and at 5:45pm in the evening. The train would be operated on the suburban route when departing from Tambaram to Chennai Beach in the early morning and from Chennai Beach to Tambaram in the night.

M.G.R. canal to be widened

The encroachment of the properties owned by the individuals in the M.G.R. canal GCC has been issued a demolition notice to the owners in the Kodambakkam zone. If these properties are demolished, 12,900 square feet of area could be recovered by GCC. The two-km-long canal starts at Ramaswamy Salai at K.K. Nagar, where it is five metres wide, and flows to M.G.R. Nagar and Ashok Nagar, and then into the Adyar River at Jafferhanpet. In a recent survey, the civic body has identified that nearly 200 structures are abutting the canal in the entire stretch, said zonal officials.

These areas are low-lying, and the surroundings are prone to flooding every time when it rains as the bunds of the canal have decreased; several structures and illegal sewage outlets into the storm-water drains add to woes, sources in the GCC said.

After the demolition is done, the bunds will be widened and strengthened, the retaining of wall along the entire stretch has been planned, and a mesh fence to prevent disposal of waste into the waterway and trash bins at four-five spots have been planned along the canal. These will be done at an estimated cost of 14.5 crore, the official added. The last eviction drive was done in 2021 in which nearly 20 properties were removed along this waterway for bund strengthening, according to the officials.

Seen in the picture nearly 80 year old Amman Kovil gets its new arch under construction. It is situated in Ponambalam Salai, K K Nagar.

March 31 deadline for water and sewer tax payment

The Chennai Metropolitan Water Supply and Sewerage Board (CMWSSB) has urged consumers to clear their water and sewer tax dues by March 31 to avoid surcharges.

Payments can be made via cheques or demand drafts at collection centers in area offices and headquarters at Chintadripet. Online payments are also available at bnc.chennaietrowater.in using debit/credit cards, net banking, UPI, and QR code.

Residents are advised to pay before the deadline to avoid additional charges.

EB Junction boxes misused

Public display of commercial posters, banners on the E B junction box on Reddy Street, Virugambakkam with residents taking a call to end the menace.

Many business promoters pasting posters on EB junction box which to them becomes a free advertisement, says Rajagopal a long time resident.

TNEB has all powers to take action against those misusing it, he added.

Nothing much has been done to get rid of posters and paintings that continue to deface and obliterate the walls in public places.

Serving as free advertisement spaces, thousands of posters have been pasted at bus stands, railway stations, public walls, bridges and main roads also.

Poster boys wake up as early as 3 pm to go around pasting them. There is no one to question them, laments residents.

International Women's day

International Women's day was celebrated by Sai Nagar, Magalir Kanavugal Sangam, Virugambakkam on Sunday between 10 am and 1 pm. The corporation staff were honoured with Shawls and Lunch Boxes for their relentless service in maintaining cleanliness in our area. They were also given food. Games were conducted among the Core committee members and prizes were given for the winners.

SWD work under progress

A majority of the stormwater drain work has been completed and the remaining work is under progress at Barathi Nagar Main Road, Nesapakkam. Motorists struggle through this road experiencing inconvenience to go through this part of the road. One portion of the road entering through Erikarai Road is closed for Storm water drain work.

The width of the road has shrunk by half due to the delay in the restoration works. Motorists find it extremely difficult to navigate the shrunken road. Karthik, a regular commuter through the stretch, said the road was cut and left in poor condition for over a week now. We don't know whether it is the highways department or GCC or Metrowater. Whoever it is, we want the road restored at the earliest, he said. He also expressed anger against the authorities for delaying the work. The officials should take steps to complete the work at the earliest. The continuing delay creates trouble for the people. This is the sad situation across the city.
