Voice of GOD

Sri Paarvatheeswarar Temple, Thiruthelicheri

This is the 167th Thevara Paadal Petra Shiva Sthalam and 50th sthalam on the south side of river Kaveri in Chozha Nadu. This place was called Thiruthelicheri during the 6th to 7th Century and is now locally called Kaarai Kil Pathu, apart on the north side of Karaikal, near a bus stand.

In Periyapuram Sekkizhar records that Thirugnanasambandar came to this temple after worshipping Lord Shiva of Thirunallar. In this Sekkizhar records that he crossed the place Bhodhimangai where Buddhists lived. In a debate, he won against Buddhists, which is described in the Legend.

Moolavar : Sri Paarvatheeswarar, Sri Sameevaneswarar Consort : Sri Parvathyammai, Sri Sakthyammai, Sri Suyamvarathabasvini. Some of the important features of this temple are.....

The temple faces west with an entrance arch and a 5-tier Rajagopuram. Dwajasthambam, balipeedam, and Rishabam are immediately after the Rajagopuram. Moolavar is under a silver mandapam and looks cute. Dwarapalakas legs are on the singamugasurar's head. In koshtam, Vinayagar, Dakshinamurthy, Lingothbavar, Brahma, and Durgai.

In praharam Siva Subramaniam, Maha Lakshmi, Durgai, Suryan, Shaniswarar, Bhairavar, Vanni Lingam, Dakshinamurthy, Narthana Ganapathy, 63var, Lingothbavar, Natarajar, Ambal worshipping Lord Shiva, Nalvar, Suriyan with Renuka Devi, Navagrahas, Chandran, Kasi Viswanathar with Visalakshi and Chandikeswarar. Urchavars in Sri Veda Roopam, Pidari Amman, Giratha Murti & Ambal, Somaskandar. Pradosha Vinayagar with Ambal are special in this temple.

Moolavar is called by different names such as Mahalingam/ Brahma Lingam since worshiped by Brahma, Rajalingam, since worshiped by Amaresan, and Baskaralingam, since worshiped by Suriyan.

There is a separate Temple for Karaikkal Ammaiyyar in the same city.

HISTORY AND INSCRIPTIONS

Since Thirugnanasambandar has sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple, the original temple might have existed before the 7th Century. Later the temple was reconstructed during the Chozha period. The temple was completely reconstructed by the Nattukottai Nagarathars.

Maha Kumbhabhishekam was conducted after renovation works on 09th May 1971 and 07th June 2004.

LEGENDS

It is believed that Ma Parvati, Brahma, Indra, Saint Markandeya, Arjuna, and Suriyan worshiped Lord Shiva in this temple.

As per the sthala purana, this place was existed in 4 yugas and called different names such as Brahma Vanam, in Krita yuga, Sameevanam in Treta yuga, Anandavanam in Dwapara yuga, and Mukti Vanam in this Kali yuga. Also called Mukthi sthalam, Suriya Sthalam, Guhasthalam, and Gauristhalam.

Suriyan also known as Baskaran and Suriyan worshiped Lord Shiva. hence Lord Shiva is called Baskara Lingam and the place is Baskara Sthalam. Every year Sun worships Lord Shiva in the form of Sunlight falling on Moolavar, 10 days starting from the 13th to the 22nd in the month of Panguni (March April).

Your Stars This Year

Aries : In the small and ordinary things—a coffee shared over a kitchen table, or the quiet of an evening spent watching the stars. An understated atmosphere of love adorns the heart. It is at this time that you see that love is in the great unknowable gestures, but more so in the concomitant and soft rhythm of everyday.

Taurus: The heart begins to realise something profound: loving someone is not the same as fixing their world. So deeply do you care; it's in your nature, and now you have to hold space for someone without taking on their burdens in any way. This will be easy, but it's compassionate, free love that will flourish.

Gemini: Stop trying to impress too much, which is beautiful because you become irresistible. Your charm shines brightest when it's not being forced, but rather when you're being entirely yourself. That gives a peaceful smile, a bright, quick talk, or a real person.

Cancer: Healing takes a seat beside humility this week. A heartfelt apology, whether it comes from you or another, begins to close an ever-quieting future. The grace of the instant shall not be from the words but from their sincerity. The truth and be gracious in giving it to one. Forgiveness sweats out the stink while closeness.

Leo: The week would be a real game-changer in your life! You may be seen for the first time for who you are, rather than for what you do. Your heart, not your confidence, or maybe your soft side, not your power, is what has been perceived by someone else. Vulnerability, but don't block it. Let the rebirth of this attention hold you.

Virgo: The relationship does not always require words to feel profound. Shared silence or closeness to someone will just speak out what is in the heart. It might be in the form of a glance, a moment of silence, or in mere presence near each other with no need to fill up the silent space with words. In that space lies a comfort.

Libra: Love is going to meet you this week with full-blown softness. Someone's love tends to remove all doubts from your heart. You may find yourself receiving love without overthinking what you could do now to win it. Every time this occurs, it bursts a beautiful opening in your heart. Own the feeling: Give in to the softening.

Scorpio: Someone unexpected may catch your attention and intrigue you this week. It might be someone whom you never, with any amount of time to think, thought would be your type, yet something does feel oddly right. There is plenty of wisdom just in your intrigue and in the feeling of "rightness."

Sagittarius: Love comes through a soft conduit this week. Some people feel a powerful awakening when they realise their passion, which is irresistible and magnetises attraction; it never goes unnoticed, nor does it remain unattended. Love, consequently, can begin from a common interest or serene courtesy.

Capricorn: A sudden shift within you—maybe a small realisation or a different perspective—and then suddenly, the bond seems so precious. What seemed mundane before begins to take root firmly. Starting to notice the subtle aspects of those around you.

Aquarius : Brings a meeting that feels like you've met someone in a past life. There is a natural rhythm to this relationship, such as an ever-flowing conversation with kin awareness. They sync with your thoughts, your absolute ways, and even your silence, which sets the connection in motion. So, throw logic out of the window.

Pisces: The innermost joy of profound feelings finds a quiet resonance inside your heart. You're welcoming the emotionally complicated parts, not shunning any part. You do not shy away from all the messes that ensue. What a lovely thing that is! Vulnerability becomes your strongest base, and your openness draws somebody else to meet the same level.

PREDICTION FOR THIS WEEK
14.06.2025 TO 20.06.2025

Truth can be eclipsed but not extinguished

Be the embodiment of the power of truth. You should have complete cleanliness for each other even in your heart. Where there is truthfulness and cleanliness, there is closeness.

The sign of truth is politeness. The simpler someone is, the cleaner he will be. Cleanliness attracts everyone towards itself. Cleanliness means honesty and truthfulness. There will be honesty and cleanliness only when you have simplicity. The one who has an easy nature can also take on various forms. You can mould a soft thing in any form you want. A true person will be dear to everyone. Even in that, first of all he will be dear to God. The Master is pleased with a true person. It is said: God is truth. So, Truth is dear to Him. It doesn't matter how impure, degraded and a great sinner someone is, but if he is truthful to the Lord, that true one finds a place in the heart of the Supreme Soul.

It is written in the flag, 'Satyamevjayate (truth alone triumphs)'. Truth is mentioned in three ways now. The first are those who just pose opposition. The second are those who do accept [the truth] but then the intellect gets confused again and then they start posing opposition again. And the third are those who are number one who stay firm on what they decide. Who are Satyamevjayate? Those who support the truth till the end. So, the one who is truth, the one who is true in all the four ages, the one who is true in all the four scenes on the stage and has remained constant on the basis of truth alone, who has never suffered defeat in history... He hasn't suffered defeat in any war at all. His life is full of struggles and he becomes victorious. And in the scriptures too, there is just one soul which is never shown to be defeated in the wars. Which soul is it?

Narayan. The one who builds a house in the water of knowledge and reside there is called Narayan. He delights only in knowledge. No matter how many struggles he has to face, no matter how big a situation of war it might be, yet, he stays carefree in the water of knowledge. It is because the sign of the power of truth is, he will always be fearless.

'Sach to bithonach', the truthful one keeps dancing meaning the one with the power of truth will always keep dancing in happiness because of being carefree, relaxed and fearless. No matter how dangerous the situation is, no matter if those in relation and connection trouble you, no matter how poisonous the atmosphere is, but the one with the power of truth turns them all into a stage for dancing in happiness. There is no need to prove the truth. Truth is such a sun which can't be hidden. No matter however many walls someone builds, the light of truth can never be hidden. A true man will never say for himself that he is true. Others should say that you are true. The Sikhs strongly believe this. They say: Haisibhisatya, ho sibhisatya. He is just true and He will be just true and He was just true. For this reason we shouldn't delay in accepting the truth. The author is solely responsible for this article. Maintain vacant plots or get ready to cough up 25,000 in fine

Property owners who fail to comply with the new corporation guidelines for maintaining vacant lands will face penalties of up to 25,000, with an additional fine of ₹500 per day for repeated violations. A resolution was passed to this effect in the council on Wednesday. The move is aimed at preventing public health concerns arising from poorly maintained vacant lands that allow for breeding of mosquitoes and other pests, and garbage accumulation.

Landowners are now required to regularly monitor their properties to ensure that garbage, construction debris, overgrown vegetation, and stagnant water are cleared promptly. Proper fencing, drainage systems, and vector control measures must be in place. Waste must be disposed of in line with SWM 2016 norms. The owners must share their address and contact to the revenue officials in zones so that they can be contacted in case of complaints of poor maintenance, the resolution stated. During inspection, the land owners must cooperate, it said.

In cases of non-compliance, the corporation will issue a formal notice. If the issue is not resolved within seven days, the GCC will clean the site using its own resources or contractors. The cost of cleanup, 5800 (up to five tonnes of waste) and ₹11,600 (up to 10 tonnes) will be recovered from the property owner. The new measures are based on the Solid Waste Management Act, 2016, Tamil Nadu Urban Local Bodies (TNULB) Act, 1998, and TNULB Rules, 2023 (sections 384, 385, and 392). As per the current rules, the city corporation collects a vacant land tax for vacant plots.

Drainage works at 175 locations to be started at a cost of Rs. 70 crore

Areas like Valasaravakkam, Porur, and Ramapuram are affected by flooding every monsoon. The reason for this is the lack of rainwater drainage facilities.

To prevent this, it was decided to construct a stormwater drainage canal from Ward 143 to Ward 155, which falls within the Valasaravakkam zone, an expansion area of the Chennai Corporation.

Accordingly, contracts have been sought to construct stormwater drainage systems at 175 locations for a cost of Rs 70 crore, and work has begun.

In particular, a rainwater drainage channel is being constructed at a cost of eight crore rupees to connect the Nandambakkam canal to the Ramapuram Thiruvalluvar road, which is particularly prone to waterlogging and causing severe damage.

Little Elly centre opens in K K Nagar

Little Elly, one of India's most trusted preschool brands, celebrated the grand launch of its new centre in K.K. Nagar, furthering its mission to nurture young minds through a joyful, play-based learning environment. At the heart of this expansion is the preschool's acclaimed Happy Curriculum, a thoughtfully designed model built on the principles of Hands-on learning, Active engagement, Play-based methods, Personal connection, and Year-round development.

The opening event featured a series of engaging, child-friendly activities, with the glider-making workshop being a standout highlight. Guided by experts, children had the opportunity to design and build their own gliders—an experience that fostered creativity, coordination, and curiosity through experiential learning.

The event was graced by Mr. Rajendran Dandapani, Director of Zoho Learning, who shared insights on the importance of innovation in early education.

"Innovation begins with curiosity—and curiosity must be nurtured early. I'm delighted to see a learning space like Little Elly that champions exploration and creativity as core pillars of its curriculum," he remarked.

Complementing the workshop were hands-on science activities, face painting, and an instagram-worthy photo booth, all of which created a lively, interactive atmosphere that brought the essence of Little Elly's learning philosophy to life.

Ms. Preeti Bhandary, Founder of Little Elly, expressed her excitement about the new centre "We are thrilled to bring our Happy Curriculum to K.K. Nagar. It's more than a methodology—it's a celebration of curiosity, exploration, and growth."

With over 150 centres across the country and more than 5,000 preschoolers currently enrolled, Little Elly's growth is a testament to the trust placed in its vision, press release said. For further more details contact: 9176200877

Bus hub with commercial complex in Vadapalani soon

In a major step toward urban infrastructure development, Chennai is set to get a state-of-the-art Integrated Bus Hub with a Commercial Complex in Vadapalani. The project, undertaken by the Chennai Metro City Development Company, is estimated to cost ₹800 crore and will be developed over 6.65 acres of prime land.

The project will feature a modern bus terminal on the ground floor, designed to handle up to 1,475 passengers and provide parking facilities for wheeled vehicles for up to 214 days.

Above the terminal, the development will include 10 floors of corporate office space, catering to Chennai's growing demand for commercial real estate. Floors 11 and 12 have been earmarked for specialized sectors such as animation, gaming, and casting departments, promoting creative and tech-based industries.

The 5th floor of the complex will host restaurants, shopping malls, and solar cell infrastructure, blending transit convenience with leisure and sustainability. The project is expected to be a model for integrated urban mobility and commercial development, making Vadapalani a new landmark hub in Chennai.

Major Reform in railways

Indian Railways has begun a pilot project to release final passenger charts 24 hours before train departure, a shift from the current practice of releasing them just 4 hours in advance. The move aims to reduce last-minute travel stress and improve planning, especially for waitlisted passengers.

Key Highlights:

Pilot Project: Rolled out under the Bikaner Division of the Western Railway from June 6.

Review Underway: Feasibility reports to be assessed before wider implementation across other divisions.

Passenger Benefits:

- Early charting allows better travel planning.
- Helps passengers from non-stoppage stations coordinate travel to major boarding points.
- Tatkal Booking Rules Updated:
 - Aadhaar verification is now mandatory.
 - IRCTC users with Aadhaar-linked accounts get priority during the first 10 minutes of Tatkal booking.
 - Agents barred from access during the initial window to curb touts.

Current System Recap:

- Charts are now made 4 hours before departure (or night before for early trains).
 - Final chart updates waiting list statuses and reallocates quota seats.
 - Fully confirmed e-tickets cannot be cancelled after charting; fully waitlisted e-tickets are auto-cancelled.
- An official Railway Board decision is expected after the pilot concludes, press release said.

GCC to roll out tender for street light worth Rs. 94.10 cr

The Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) has approved a 94.10 crore project to undertake the maintenance of 3.01 lakh street lights and 507 high mast lights across the city for one year. As part of the initiative, the civic body will also procure 40,688 new LED lights at a cost of 39.66 crore to replace damaged ones. The maintenance component alone is estimated to cost 54.44 crore. Unlike previous years, where the in-house electrical department managed the upkeep, the work will now be outsourced to private contractors.

GCC to set up EV charging stations at 15 key locations

With the rise in electric vehicle (EV) usage, the Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) has announced plans to install EV charging stations at 15 locations across the city to strengthen public charging infrastructure.

In coordination with the Tamil Nadu Green Energy Corporation Limited, GCC has identified beaches, parks, playgrounds, and other government-owned lands in all 15 zones for the initiative.

Some prominent locations include: Somasudharam Ground, Corporation Playground (Kodambakkam), Egmore National Art Gallery, Magaral Park (Ambattur), Chetpet Eco Park, Bougainvillea Park (Anna Nagar), Semmozhi Park, Nageswara Rao Park, Marina Beach Parking (Teynampet), Besant Nagar, Thiruvanniyur Beach Parking (Adyar).

Metro work in full swing

Metro rail flyover works are in full swing on the Sholingnallur Metro Rail line, from Koyambedu to Alwarthirunagar.

Work is underway on three lines of the Chennai Metro Rail Project, Phase II.

Problems in land acquisition between Koyambedu Market and Alwarthirunagar, the commencement of work was delayed. Currently, the flyover work in this area has also gained momentum.

Chennai Metro Rail Corporation officials said: Work from Koyambedu Market to Alwarthirunagar is underway in full swing.

Overpass connection work is underway on hundreds of piers already erected on this track.

Apart from this, structural works like platforms, escalators, lifts etc. are also going on at the metro stations. We are going to start metro service on this route by the end of next year. They said this.
