Sri Dharbaranyeswarar Temple, Thirunallar

This is the 169th Thevara Padal Petra Shiva Sthalam on the south side of the river Kaveri and the 52nd Sthalam in Chozha Nadu. This is one of the Moovar Paadal Petra Shiva Temple. This temple is one of the Saptha vidanga sthalangal. (The 6 other temples are Thiruvavur, Nagapattinam, Thirumaraikadu, Thirukkaarayil, Thiruvaimur, and Thirukolili-Thirukkuvalai). This is one of the 44 temples on which Moovar has sung in praise of Lord Shiva. This place was called Dharparanyam, Nagavidangapuram, and Nalesuram during ancient times.

In Periyapuram Sekkizhar records that Thirugnanasambandar came to this temple after worshipping Lord Shiva of Dharmapuram.

Thirugnanasambandar, Thirunavukkarasu Swamikal, Sundarar, and Vallalar have sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple. Thirugnanasambandar has sung the hymn 'Bogamarntha Poonmulaiyal' in the analvatham and the same was called "Pachai Thirupathigam".

Moolavar : Sri Dharbaranyeswarar, Sri Thirunallatreswarar. Consort : Sri Piranambigai, Sri Praneswari and Sri Bogamarntha Poonmulaiyal. Some of the salient features of this temple are... The temple faces east with 5-tier Rajagopuram and the front mutram was converted as mandapam. Moolavar is of Swayambhu since Lord Shiva came through Dharbai (A type of grass) and there is a scar on his head. In koshtam Dakshinamurthy, Vinayagar, Brahma and Durgai.

On the side, Unmatha nadana Thyagesar is with Devi Nilothlambal. Thiagarajar is called as Naga Vidanga Thyagar- Sri Shenbaga Thiagarajar and the dance is called as Unmatha nadanam.

In the outer praharam Nalan's history as painting, Vasantha mandapam (a new mandapam is constructed and on the pillars Stucco images of Shiva's dance). On the right and left of Sri Shani Bhagavan sannidhi - Kumbha and makara rasi reliefs are covered with brass plates.

In the inner prakaram, Sundarar, 63var, Naleswarar. Sthala Vinayagar Swarna Ganapathy, Saptha vidanga sthala Shiva Lingas, Subramaniam, Adhiseshan, Nalanarayana Perumal, Mahalakshmi, Bhairavar. Natarajar sabha and Urvachars. On the right side, is the temple for Idayan, his wife, and Accountant /kanakkan. In the mandapam pillars 10 types of Shiva's dance stucco images.

Maragatha Lingam is in safe custody and Pooja will be conducted during the morning at 08.30 Hrs abhishekam.

The 15th Century Saint Arunagirinathar sang hymns in praise of the Muruga of this temple.

HISTORY AND INSCRIPTIONS

Since Thirugnanasambandar and Appar have sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple the original temple might have existed before the 7th Century. Later the same was reconstructed as a stone temple during the Chozhas period and extended during Vijayanagaras / Marathas.

As per the inscription this temple was under Uyyakondar Valanattu Muzhayur Nattu Thirunallar and Lord Shiva was called Thirunallarudayar. Rajathirajan-II's 11th reign year inscription starts with meikeethi records an endowments executed by more than 10 Bhattans. Since the inscription was incomplete and could not trace this endowment was established. Probably land may be donated to this temple.

Your Stars This Year

Aries : A deep, vulnerable talk marks the great reset into romance. The cosmos calls for some clarifying air and some heartfelt talks. Anything that weighs on your chest should be gently released from the heart. Speak the truth opens a way for healing and reconnecting with someone with whom a genuine connection is shared.

Taurus : Take a moment to truly appreciate your connections. Venus urges you to break free from habits and choose what truly feels significant. It is truly not labouring in love; it is being there. If you are single, trust where your heart naturally leads you. If in a relationship, make room for more meaningful.

Gemini : Love is easier when one is grounded in self-worth. Stay true to yourself and value yourself, the universe advises. Someone might seem interested, but your heart will know if it's genuine or not. When you are relaxed and genuine, your charm shines brightest.

Cancer : An encounter will leave an indelible imprint on the direction of your love. This one brings in someone or some force that shifts your emotional attention. Whether it be a quiet connection or a cryptic conversation, your heart has been stirred in an inquisitive manner that cannot be ignored.

Leo : Surprise you through an unexpected reunion. A transit, this week, could put a former somebody back in front of you; this is not necessarily by coincidence, but rather by divine appointment. Perhaps an ex or an old friend, there is now a touch of gentleness in this exchange that was not there before- it is very different now.

Virgo : Your boundaries will act as a measure of how you wish others to love you. You are learning that in saying no, you are caring for both yourself and the other person. Love does not imply over extension or people-pleasing. When you tell others what feels safe and righteous, they respond with reverence.

Libra : Shared laughter heals lingering tension. This week, love will initiate some lightness. A simple moment of joy may lift the heaviness festering between you and someone close. Anything from silly chatter to last-minute plans is potent stuff that lets the connection grow when the two of you simply enjoy each other's.

Scorpio : Your love language to change with your growth. Waxing and waning exchange of affection set to restore some steadiness and align more with those things that define who you are today, not who you were yesterday-too-nearly, a need to gain some emotional intensity, or perhaps one of those rare-intense-learning.

Sagittarius : Your desires are coming into focus-awaken to and act upon them. Allows for a direction in love that might have felt missing before. Wanting more depth, wanting more freedom, or wanting something completely different- these realisations shine through honesty and sincere self-reflection.

Capricorn : Slow-building sweet intimacy gets the opportunity this week. Love never rushes you; it rather extends an invitation to take time and build something real. Let things evolve personally now, whether you are deepening feelings or allowing room for new affection.

Aquarius : Opens doors for affection much more than forced harmony. Encourages you to voice whatever you have been holding back, not to engender conflict, but to foster a connection based on genuine understanding. It might feel easier to just keep the peace; however, your heart yearns for more than a surface-level.

Pisces : You are learning to receive love as profoundly as you bestow it. It's time to allow yourself to soften this week, to let love into your life without attaching a question to whether it's deserved. Kindness is your gift; however, it is equally important to allow someone to care for you. Allow yourself to be supported; if you are single, take note of who shows up.

PREDICTION FOR THIS WEEK
29.06.2025 TO 05.07.2025

Utmost faith irradiates victory

'Be stable in the soul conscious stage'. Through this, you will develop indestructible faith, and you will attain willpower and the power to face [various] situations, circumstances and problems. Faith is called victory. The way you have faith, you perform actions the same way. If there is a shortcoming in faith, there will be a shortcoming in actions too. This is why it is said: the one with a faithful intellect is victorious. So, what is the foundation? Faith.

Vishvaasamfaldaayakam (faith bears fruit). If you have faith something harmful will also change into benefit. There is so much power in faith! Keep all your specialties before you and not your flaws, then you will have faith in yourself. Don't overthink your weakness, this way you will keep moving ahead happily. No matter what happens, no matter what situation arises but you shouldn't stop. Be courageous and keep moving ahead. People will make you disheartened. Don't become [that]. You shouldn't get sidetracked, you have to reach the destination. You will definitely reach [the destination] taking the support of this 'One Strength, One Faith'. No matter how impossible a task is, it will seem possible through it. The [one with] a faithful intellect is always distant from waste. The end of waste is the sign of being victorious. The one with a faithful intellect can never be defeated. Those with a faithful intellect also free others from defeat, then how can they themselves be defeated? The sign of a victorious gem with a faithful intellect is - their mind won't be confused even a little because of taking the right decision. There will be the wave of happiness. Even if the circumstances are like fire, that fire [like] examination will make them experience the joy of victory.

No matter what happens, remember that you are always victorious. No matter what happens, [if] your faith is firm, no one can shake it. Then you will always be like Angad. You have to face whirlwinds and storms before you reach a high destination. A steamer does have to cross the whirlpool to go across [the ocean]. So, don't panic, get tired [or] stop in haste. Take the company of the Companion, then, you will be alleviated from every problem. If you become courageous, you will definitely receive help.

The sign of faith (nishcay) is being carefree (nishcint). An intelligent student awaits for an examination and the weak fear it. So, who are you? This is the sign of [the one with] a faithful intellect that he will always be carefree knowing everything and every scene is certain; he won't have the worry of why, what and how. He will be able to cross the whirlpool easily and will always experience that the destination is close.

When many kinds of examinations come in front [of you], you face a hurdle in purusharth because of not having the power to face those exams. It is necessary to take the help of others at such time. For example, when the battery of a car gets a bit loose, the car doesn't move on its own. You ask others to push it a bit. So, whichever soul you have faith in and think that you can get help from him, you should take a little help from him and move ahead. The author is solely responsible for this article. Sudden Disappearance of 38 year old Garbage collection Bins at end of Rangan Street with Rameswaram Road

Hundreds of families in Rameswaram Road have been using the two Garbage collection bins cited above for more than 38 years without any problem. In the recent weeks they have appeared suddenly putting the residents to untold miseries and sufferings. Senior citizens and women are particularly affected. Stray cattle, dogs cats, cockroaches invade the houses and flats where the residents keep the garbage in plastic bags putting life, health and property in danger. Plastic menace is further aggravated.

We understand that corruption by vested interests has played a role in this. In the place where these garbage bins had been kept all these 38 years, vested interests have encroached 4 feet x 20 feet of public road of Rangan street and built illegal obstruction to the residents using to put garbage in the same place. Visuals of illegal construction and cattle invasion of homes are enclosed.

Would the Commissioner of Greater Chennai Municipal Corporation restore the garbage bins and remove the illegal construction.

Apollo hospital launches cancer support group for survivors

Doctors from Apollo Cancer Centres and Apollo Proton Cancer Centre join hands with cancer winners to launch CanWin, a support group dedicated to strength, healing, and shared journeys in the fight against cancer.

The initiative was launched with an emotional story telling session led by the cancer winners where each one of them took the centre stage to share their personal stories of courage, strength and triumph. These raw and inspiring narratives served as a beacon of hope for others walking down a similar path.

Master Lithin, a 10-year-old Medulloblastoma survivor from Chennai, said, 'I was too little to understand cancer, but I knew I wanted to get back to playing. The doctors helped me fight, and my family never let me lose hope. I went through many treatments, but today, I feel strong. I may be small agewise, but my fight was big, and I won over it. Now, I just want to live, laugh, and grow.'

Mrs Monica, a psychologist and Hodgkin Lymphoma survivor from Chennai shared her extraordinary journey of survival and purpose. 'Just months after giving birth, I discovered a lump-first mistaken for tuberculosis but later confirmed as Hodgkin lymphoma. What followed were relentless relapses, five lines of chemotherapy, a bone marrow transplant and 35 rounds of radiation, etched across my body in the shape of a cross. I endured physical pain and the heartbreak of missing my child's early years. But with faith, family and fierce hope, I rose like a phoenix. Today, I run a thriving business and serve as talen and OD specialist at Maatram 360, working to challenge stigma and inspire change', she said.

Master Shrikar, who survived optic nerve sheath meningioma, said losing vision in one eye changed how I see the world – but not how I see myself. I faced every scan, every treatment, and every challenge with belief that things would get better. Proton therapy gave me hope, and my family's strength kept me going. I've learned that even when life blurs, courage brings clarity'.

Rlys likely to hike fares

The Railway Ministry is planning to increase train fares slightly from July 1, 2025, officials said on Tuesday.

For Mail and Express trains, the fare for non-AC classes may go up by 1 paise per kilometre. For all AC classes, the fare may rise by 2 paise per kilometre. Officials said this would be the smallest fare hike compared to earlier increases in 2020 and 2013.

Good news for regular commuters: there will be no increase in fares for suburban trains and monthly season tickets.

Also, ordinary second class fares will stay the same for distances up to 500 km. For longer distances, there could be a small increase of half a paise per kilometre.

The last fare hike was on January 1, 2020, when second class fares for ordinary trains went up by 1 paise per km, Mail/Express by 2 paise, sleeper class by 2 paise, and AC classes by 4 paise.

Broken manhole to break the man....

Manholes are meant to look at the underground lines and pipes for the underlying damages and blockages.

But the manhole available in Raghavan colony Main Road, Vadapalani is in broken condition and the cover meant for the manhole is half gone inside the hole.

To avoid vehicles to get into the manhole pit, some wooden piece is placed over it. However rain water can easily move the wooden piece and if the water gets stagnated, two wheelers will get struck and fall off in no time.

Also, this will not prevent the rain water getting inside the pit carrying and dumping all the wastage into it. This further worsen the drainage block.

Hence it is mandatory to replace the broken manhole lid with a proper lid, immediately.

Damaged CCTVs

CCTV cameras are placed in most of the areas of Chennai in order to curb the anti socialist activities especially at night times. Availability of CCTVs cause a intuitive fear to the miscreants and a secured feeling to the general public.

But in Anna Main Road, Kodambakkam, either the available CCTVs are damaged or not at all available.

Thousands and lakhs of amount are spent for installation of CCTVs for our public safety. But no step has been taken by the concerned authorities to maintain the same.

Broken CCTVs show the lethargic attitude in maintenance and wastage of public money. Also it encourages the miscreants to proceed with their work.

It is the time to put the available CCTVs in working condition and to install one wherever required.

Authorities to consider the above issue before an issue arises.

Order to shift N.S. Krishnan statue from T. Nagar to Chepauk

Chief Minister Stalin has ordered the relocation of the N.S. Krishnan statue in T Nagar to Chepauk. The government has issued a statement on this: NS Krishnan was a renowned actor in the Tamil film industry. He was versatile in acting, singing, directing and producing. He acted in more than 150 films. He was a follower of Gandhian principles. He was known as Kalaivanar and passed away in 1957.

At the Thirumalai Pillai Road junction, G.N. Chetty Street, Thirumalai Nagar, the then Chief Minister Annadurai inaugurated the statue of N.S. Krishnan in 1969. In 2008, when a high-level bridge was built at the road junction, his statue was temporarily installed on the side of the junction. His family requested that the statue be removed from there and placed at the Kalaivanar Arangam complex on Wallaja Road. In response to this, Chief Minister Stalin has ordered the immediate installation of a statue of N.S. Krishnan in the Kalaivanar Arangam complex. Thus it is stated.
