Mahakalanathaswamy Temple, Kovilthirumalam

This is the 172nd Thevara Paadal Petra Shiva sthalam and the 55th Sthalam on the south side of river Kaveri in Chozha Nadu. Now this place is called Kovilthirumalam.

In Periyapuram Sekkizhar records that Thirugnanasambandar came to this Temple after worshipping Lord Shiva of Thirupugalur.

Moolavar : Sri Mahakalanathar, Sri Kalakandeswarar. Consort : Sri Bayakshambikai. Sri Acham Thavirtha Nayaki. Some of the salient features of this temple are as follows.

The temple faces east with a 5-tier Rajagopuram at the first level and a 3-tier Rajagopuram at the second level. Balipeedam and Rishabam are in between two Rajagopurams. It is believed that Moolavar was made by Kali by her hands. In Koshtam, Vinayagar, Dakshinamurthy, Lingothbavar, Brahma, and Durgai. Somaskandar is on the back side of the moolavar. In praharam Vanmika Nathar, Somasiyar with his wife Susila, 63var, Vinayagar, Subramanar, Sattainathar (On the north side 2nd tier - side of Compound wall). Sannathi for Mahalakshmi, Eesana jwarahara Lingam, Navagrahas, Natarajar Mandapam, Saneeswarar, Bhairavar, Dhandapani and Subramanar with bow. Urchavars Thyagarajar, Katchi Kodutha Nayagar, Somachimarar with his wife, Murugan with a bow, Somaskandar, Shiva Lingam in the hands of Kaali. Urchavar Thyagesar is not of regular images and is different from other temples. Shiva is in the form of Vettiyan and Ambal is his wife with kallukudam/toddy pot on her head, Vinayagar & Murugan are small children.

The 15th Century Saint Arunagirinathar has sung Hymns in praise of Lord Muruga of this temple.

ARCHITECTURE

The temple consists of Sanctum sanctorum, antarala, artha mandapam, maha mandapam, and a Mukha mandapam. The mukha mandapam is of Vavval nethi style.

HISTORY AND INSCRIPTIONS

Since Thirugnanasambandar has sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple, the original temple might have existed before the 7th Century. Later the same was reconstructed as a stone temple during the Chozha period and further extended during Vijayanagara and Marathas.

The inscriptions recorded from this temple belong to Rajaraja, Rajendra Chozha- III, Kulothunga-III, and Pandya Kings Kulasekara Pandyan. As per the inscriptions, this place was under Uyyakondar Valanattu Ambarnattu Ambar Thirumahalam (Kulothunga-I) Bhoobalakulavalli Valanattu Ambarnattu Ambar Makalam (Kulothunga-III). Lord Shiva was called as Thirumakala Udayar, Thirumakalathu Mahadevar.

There are 59 fragment inscriptions, recorded from this temple between the 12th to 13th Century. The inscriptions belong to both Chozhas and Pandyas. These inscriptions record the gift of land for burning perpetual lamps and worship. Some of the land periphery limits are also given. Some of the inscriptions record the names of People, and the names of the water channels, like Kulothunga Chozha Vaikkal, Ramadeva Vaikkal, Vethavabavathy, Pirantaka Vaikkal, etc. The grading of lands was given based on the produce and water feeding etc.

Your Stars This Year

Aries : May feel a sense of unease, but a structured approach will ultimately provide a solution. Create a simple plan by breaking down big tasks into manageable steps and establishing a routine to follow. You will then easily integrate all of it into the rhythm of your daily life. Having clarity and order at work.

Taurus: Something as simple as a small financial habit could reshape the bigger picture of your money consciousness. It could be as simple as writing down your daily expenses or saving something every day. Make it simple, but remain focussed every day. Under this pressure, you will gain more control over yourself.

Gemini: Make progress and avoid getting into a frame of mind where you compare yourself to others. Everyone has a unique path, and you should celebrate the small wins that keep you moving forward. Do not let distractions take over-your focus has to be on your own goals.

Cancer: Try not to overthink your problems. If stress is the problem, whether it's financial or work-related, then keep it simple. Simple is making a list, clearing your mind, and then doing one thing at a time. You may find that a little thought will reveal that things are quite simple. Financially, do not gamble.

Leo: Unexpected compliment or support from a most unlikely person—a senior, a client, or even someone quietly observing you at work. Your efforts have been noticed, even if they have never been spoken of. Stand tall and keep your head high. A small gesture, such as a token of appreciation or a bonus, could lift your spirits.

Virgo: You want to go faster, but this week, you are supposed to trust the process. The growth is real, even if it's at a slow pace. Avoid making hasty decisions or pushing yourself too hard. Let things unravel by themselves. Behind the scenes, progress is occurring in your workplace; just maintain your pace.

Libra: Added task or last-minute responsibility might seem a burden initially, but look at it from deep within; it may be your door to something bigger. Do not run away from what is heavy this week. Career-wise, this is your time to shine and show your abilities. Financially, reliability can pay off in the future.

Scorpio: Don't wait this week - take charge. That tiny step right now will relieve you of some heavy burdens later. Whether it means fixing your resume, settling that overdue bill, or going for that pitch, we all do it without hesitation. Your future self will thank you profusely for making those wise decisions today.

Sagittarius: As long as you commit, this week rewards you. Starting is easy. Finishing is what yields meaningful results. Never leave your tasks half-done; instead, follow through with all your focus. Try not to turn this into a situation for quick gains, but rather a situation for sticking to budget plans.

Capricorn: Emotional balance is being emphasised with the money flow. Focussed and centred, money decisions will come more easily and be wiser. Do not make decisions when you are stressed. Soulfully communicate—their stress should in no way become yours.

Aquarius : The time has come to address the professional boundaries in your life. Are you signing off on too many "yeses"? This week will cast a spotlight on occasions when your time or effort has been taken too much. Speak up gently but assertively. Creating professional boundaries will keep your work productive.

Pisces: Your mind works on a bold idea. Don't hold back for fear—it could be exactly what someone else is looking for. At work, confidently voice out those thoughts. With that fresh approach, you might just get the applause or the opportunity to proceed. Financially, that innovative plan could pave the way for further progress. Trust your vision and express it clearly.

PREDICTION FOR THIS WEEK
20.07.2025 TO 26.07.2025

Be introvert, Be free from Folly

An introvert is always happy. You will have inner happiness when you stay introvert. What does it mean to be introvert? What does it mean to be extrovert? To think about the body means to be extrovert. To think about the body, the relatives of the body, the objects of the body, this is extroversion. And to think about the soul and what all part is recorded in the soul, what kind of part is recorded in different souls, how the souls play their part, how many groups of souls play a similar part - to think about this is to stay introvert.

There are many of such ones who like to live in a gathering, laugh and talk a lot, but this is being extrovert. Now, make yourself the one who lives in solitude meaning become introvert from the vibrations of all kinds of attractions. Now, such a time is going to come when this very practice will come in use. If you have the practice of being influenced by the physical attraction, it will deceive you at the hour of need. Such circumstances will arise that you won't find any other support except this practice. Just like we watch television, serials through these physical eyes now, we watch cinema, we watch films. So we enjoy it a lot. Now, we enjoy it with these external eyes. It is because we haven't been able to make the extrovert attitude into an introvert attitude yet. When we make our attitude introvert with practice, the outside world won't fascinate us at all.

Those who are introvert always sit on the heart throne of the Supreme Father. Those who are introvert are dear to everyone. This is why, become introvert. Being introvert doesn't mean that you just stop speaking through the mouth. No. If someone stops speaking from the mouth but thoughts and negative thoughts keep racing within him, he will pollute the atmosphere even more. This is why, there should be both, the inner as well as outer silence.

This is a human life and if some insignificant news about someone comes up, people tend to blabber on about it everywhere. So, be it any insignificant matter, don't repeat it. It is garbage. Should garbage be buried or should it be spread? It should be buried. To describe about it to any person, means the news reaches the ears of many people. As a result, everyone's vibrations will be spoiled. If such a situation arises, if anyone's weakness comes to your notice, if it comes in your intellect, what do you have to do about it? You have to contain it within yourself. You have to become introvert.

Introvert means the embodiment of experience. As far as possible we must be introvert (antarmukh). Why are more mistakes committed? It is because we become body conscious, we become extrovert (bahirmukhi). We don't remember the soul present in the body. When we start thinking about the external body, mistakes are committed. So, if you remain introvert as far as possible, less mistakes will happen.

When you become introvert and think and churn over all these concepts, you yourselves can understand them through your intellect. It is because the more you do research sitting in the room of introversion, you will have the best touching to that extent. The author is solely responsible for this article. Milled causes air pollution

Commuters and motorists plying via Saidapet and West Mambalam are facing difficulties due to the milled Old Mambalam Road that awaits relaying. The commuters are left with no other option but to ride through the damaged road when traveling from Govindan Road. The ongoing Metro Water sewage pipeline installation work on the road has added to the traffic woes. Additionally, a government school is located on the street, resulting in the highest volume of traffic and congestion.

Explaining the difficulties, Suresh, a resident of Kavarai Street, West Mambalam, said, 'I use a mask to protect myself from the dust pollution caused by the poor condition of the road.'

Several accidents have happened over the past two weeks. Even in the light rain, the road becomes slippery, and a senior citizen fell and sustained minor injuries'.

Disabilities unable to access lounges

Greater Chennai Corporation has set up lounges with air condition, power outlets and toilets in T Nagar recently for gig workers to relax. Recently few complaints has raised regarding the spaces remain inaccessible to people with disabilities (PwDs), says Thirupathi, a food delivery agent.

The Act also states that the govt should ensure all public buildings and spaces that are already constructed be made accessible through modifications. 'Despite such an Act in place, policy makers continue to build places that are inaccessible for disable persons. It needs to be strictly enforced during planning phase'.

Committed to social welfare

Devotion and dedication to cost can make human beings stretch their capabilities and perform tasks which are not easily accomplished.

An ardent devotee of Parmacharya, a teenage 11th grade student of JP Stevens high school in New Jersey USA, Samaya Vaikkam takes up the project of serving the society as often as possible.

During her summer break post 11th grade, she came to India with a primary purpose of volunteering at the congregation of the temple: Thiruvengadu, located in South India. She focused on cleaning the temple premises, preparing and serving food for the needy.

Social work has become an integral part of Samaya's routine. Whenever she visits India, she always looks out for opportunities to help people, be it going to blind school and helping them, read books for them, going to old age home and giving them company. In addition, she also spends great amount of efforts in collecting old clothes and uses this opportunity to find and donate to the needy people directly.

Parents are so lucky to have samaya as their daughter. She is a role model to all the people around her. Wishing her a great success in her future endeavors!

T Nagar bus terminus will be renovated soon with many facilities

The T Nagar bus terminus is all set for a renovation of worth 254 cr. The CMDA plans to build a five-storey commercial complex with shops, co-working spaces, and a library. The bus terminus will be renovated and it will continue to operate on the ground floor of proposed complex. As of now, the campus caters to 60 buses making more than 300 trips daily to major locations, including Broadway and Tambaram. The ground floor will also have ATM, ticket counters, information centres, a passenger waiting area of 5,500 sqft, a mothers' room, a restaurant, a cafe corner, and a drinking water facility. The mezzanine floor will have dormitories, with a clinic and pharmacy. Remaining floors will have commercial space with access to the T Nagar skywalk.

Under the new design, CMDA will create an entry point 50 metres ahead of the existing entry on Usman Road. Currently, deluxe buses take a sharp U-turn to enter the terminus. When ten buses enter at a time, drivers end up leaving the buses on the road, causing further traffic problems. Additionally, on the narrow police station road, whiteboard buses take a sharp left turn, often endangering pedestrians. The CMDA will also increase the bus stand space by four feet to prevent inundation.

GCC conducted mega cleaning camp

The Saidapet government employees' residence was found to be unsanitary due to non-cleaning work. In this situation, Minister Subramanian intervened and a mega cleaning operation was carried out in Dadandar Nagar, Saidapet.

There are 1,844 apartments here. Another 1,500 apartments are to come up. This complex, which is maintained by the Public Works Department, was found to be in poor condition due to lack of proper sanitation in areas including the park, playground, hospital, and school campus.

Meanwhile, Minister Subramanian launched a mega cleaning campaign at the government employees' residence Sunday. 26 employees, using 46 garbage bins and five vehicles, carried out cleaning work in the premises.

Deputy Mayor Mahesh Kumar, Joint Commissioner Jayaseelan and others participated in the event.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Cutting of a tree

The government promotes tree planting initiatives through various media channels and encourages communities to protect local greenery.

They impose fines on individuals who cut down trees in front of their residences, even in cases where the trees may cause damage to walls or sumps, unless proper notice is given by the Tamil Nadu authorities.

Given this effort to preserve trees, it raises questions about the recent cutting of a large tree that provided shade to many customers at the Aavin milk booth near the Amma Unavagam and the corporation office on Thambiah Street.

This action occurred despite the concerted efforts and requests from community members to prevent its removal.

In the past, following concerns voiced by local activists, the commissioner of Chennai Corporation ensured that a rainwater project on Arya Gowda Street was executed without harming any trees.

This decision was well-received and praised by the neighbourhood welfare association for its commitment to environmental preservation.

However, it seems that this time, the tree was cut down under the supervision of corporation officials for reasons that may not align with the community's values on tree conservation. We hope that future actions will reflect the collective desire to protect our urban greenery.

Teepangudi S. Karpaga Ganesh,
 President, Postal colony and Kamatchi Puram 1st Street, Residence Welfare Association.
