Sargunalingeswarar Temple, Karukudi

This is the 186th Thevara Paadal Petra Shiva Sthalam and 69th sthalam on the south side of the river Kaveri in Chozha Nadu. Now this place is called Marudanallur or Marudhantha Nallur. But Thirugnanasambandar refers to this place as Karukkudi. The Enathi Natha Nayanar, one of the 63 Nayanmars, belongs to Enanalloor, which is near this place.

Thirugnanasambandar and Vallalar have sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple.

Thirugnanasambandar's visit to this temple in his Purana in Periya Puranam is not traceable.

Moolavar : Sri Karukudinathar, Sri Bramhapureswarar, Sri Sargunalingeswarar. Consort : Sri Advaita Nayagi, Sri Kalyana Nayagi.

Some of the salient features of this temple are.....

The temple faces east with an entrance arch. Rishabam and Balipeedam are in front of the Sanctum Sanctorum. A Stucco image of Shiva and Parvati is on the arch and entrance of the Sanctum. Vinayagar and Murugan Sannidhis are at the entrance of the sanctum sanctorum. Moolavar is believed to be made of mud by Sri Rama, and hence, abhishekam will be done after covering the Shiva Linga with a Kavasam. Avudayar is of stone. In Koshtam, Narthana Vinayagar, Dakshinamurthy with 2 sanakathi munis, Lingothbavar with Maha Vishnu and Brahma on both sides, Brahma and Durgai.

In praharam, Dwara Ganapathy, Bala Murugan, Saneeswarar is Bala Saneeswaran, A Shiva Linga Sannathi, a Rishabam, Chandikeswarar, Navagrahas, Chandran, Suryan, Hanumantha Linga, Pandya King Sargunan, and his minister. Ambal is in a standing posture in Kalyana kolam. The Ambal Sannathi is on the right side of the main sanctum Sanctorum facing east. An image of Dhananjayan worshipping in a worshipping posture.

ARCHITECTURE

The sanctum Vimanam is a little taller. Veena Dakshinamurthy is on the Vimanam.

HISTORY AND INSCRIPTIONS

Since Thirugnanasambandar has sung hymns in praise of Lord Shiva of this temple, the original temple might have existed before the 7th Century. Later, the same was reconstructed as a stone temple during the Chozha period. Further extended during the Thanjavur Nayakas period and maintained by Nattukottai Nagarathars.

The inscriptions recorded from this temple belong to Rajaraja-I and Kulothunga Chozha-III. Rajarajan-I's 2nd reign year inscription records Lord Shiva's name as Vizhumiya Nayanar, and this place was under Kulothunga Chozha Valanattu Thirunaraiyur Nadu. Thiruvathavur Nayanar (Manickavasagar) was established by a Devaradiyar Karaiyerivittal Thirunattaperumal of Visveswarar temple at Chennimangalam, and also gave gifts for daily worship. Maha Kumbhabhishekam was conducted on 06th July 2003 and 11th June 2011, after maintenance.

LEGENDS

It is believed that Brahma, Hanuman, Rama, Pandya King Sarguna, and his minister worshiped Lord Shiva of this temple. Since Brahma worshiped, Lord Shiva is called Brahmapureswarar. And Lord Shiva is also called Sarguna Lingeswarar, since the Pandya King Sargunan was worshiped. During exile, Rama with Sita, and Lakshman stayed here for some time. For doing pooja, Rama asked Hanuman to bring a Shiva Linga from Kasi. Since it was delayed and pooja time was going to end, Rama made a Shiva Linga out of mud and completed the Pooja.

Your Stars This Year

Aries : Clear communication would pave the way this week. Say what you mean, and nothing more, nothing less. A minor victory will reward you for the next bigger step. At work, don't just walk through your tasks; work with intention. Money-wise, rethink your spending. Is it matching your goal? If it no longer excites.

Taurus: Can you outgrow a role that once fit? This week, attempt to perceive the current feeling of your career. A simple "I'll get back to you" saves your energy and time. At work, slow and thoughtful decisions will afford better results. Financially, stay steady! Someone from your past will surprise you with an opportunity.

Gemini: Do not let busyness distract from the bigger goals. Take a moment to ask: Is this still taking me forward? A small success can bring about new opportunities. Your words with clarity that will count more than effort. In terms of money, remember that even slow progress.

Cancer: Focus more on your inner self than your image. You don't have to be seen doing everything. What matters is doing the right things well. At work, release the grip on tasks that feel like check boxes. Choose. Slow. Results. Qualify. Cut out distractions. An old connection might lend a new perspective.

Leo: Emotionally, you will feel inclined to put your own spin on success. This week, do not look for acclaim; look for significance. That tiny moment of success may be the seed from which the next grasp is sprouted. At work, feel free to be honest when things feel boring and unchallenging. A shift may be in place.

Virgo: Let desire be strong; let respect be stronger. This week, you could find your heart being keenly drawn toward someone. Forget the power of mutual respect, for if feelings and respect are together, love is strong; if either is missing, it will not last. If you are in a relationship, let your partner know love means care.

Libra: You might realise that for you, leadership does not mean control; it means having clarity, being present with knowing, and making calm choices. Let this be the week when words speak for themselves; "I'll get back to you" can be a complete sentence in itself. A small win can be a sign of a greater one.

Scorpio: This small win this week could be a harbinger of larger change coming on. Don't rush; observe. At work, be aware of that feeling of a dead end. Let go of roles or tasks that no longer challenge you. Trust that slow work builds lasting results. Stay grounded and patient financially. An opportunity might be surfaced by

Sagittarius: Some energy keeping may be necessary. Time to learn to say no now and then. At work, be crystal clear before speaking, and take your time to pause rather than respond quickly. Now spend your money consciously, not out of habit. It is perfectly fine to explore alternative avenues if your current job.

Capricorn: Time to let go of work that feels like routine, not progress. Does this still matter to me? At work, thoughtful words and steady effort will lead to a great deal of acknowledgement. A little success could be your guide towards a new road. Stay steady and trust.

Aquarius : There is no need to overwork yourself in an attempt to prove your dedication. This week, protect your energy, even if it means taking it slow. A new door may be opened by an old friend who remembers your past performance. A slow and steady method will be best for finances. Your actions should flow from your vision.

Pisces: These things may seem like a minor win, but they're worth letting go of because they drain you. Your energy is precious; don't waste it. One minor win will assist in defining the very place you are expected to go next. Be sure to consider if every single thing is deemed acceptable before accepting everything. Saying "I'll get back to you later" gives you space to think.

Ghosts and spirits haunting you? Know the cure...

Even today, the scientists keep [themselves] aloof from a supernatural power... they fear it. [Do you know what it is?] Hadn't they feared it, they would have frequented the Bermuda Triangle. They would have tried to enter it. But they don't even go near it. The scientists are limited only to the physical [world]. They don't know anything about that subtle power. In today's world, more than 50% of the diseases are such that devices of the scientists are unable to diagnose them. [They say:] it's normal. When they are unable to diagnose the disease, how will they treat it? How will they give medicines? God has given you this power to grasp on the basis of yogbal. Explore it...

Who become ghosts and spirits?

All the subtle bodied souls which are wandering here and there in the world are ghosts and spirits in a way. The souls who perform more sinful deeds, it is they who become ghosts and spirits. Whom do they enter?

Those who have karmic accounts with the ghosts of giving sorrow in the previous births, it is they who they (ghosts) enter. Those with whom they don't have karmic accounts, they can't enter them.

When a person becomes very frightened, he even starts seeing [things]. If that fear gets out of the intellect, the ghosts also run away. If someone has the body conscious stage, ghosts and spirits do their work. If the soul conscious stage is firm, the subtle bodily beings can't do anything at all. How to ward them off?

Consider yourself a star. Sit in remembrance in the morning. You shouldn't remember anything at all as soon as you wake up. [Just remember:] I am a star. I am a soul. Generate very easy, very good thoughts like this. Continue to remember the star. The foundation of the morning will become firm. The foundation of the morning will be useful for the entire day. Not more, at least start with five minutes. If you remember your soul, the point of light, you will also remember the Supreme Father Supreme Soul easily. It is about becoming stable in svadharma. 'Sva' means the soul [and] 'dharma' means practice. Even if you start practicing soul conscious stage with five minutes, you will be benefitted a lot. It is mentioned in the Gita too, 'svalpamapyasya dharmasya, traayate mahato bhayaat'.

Becoming stable in the practice of the soul conscious stage protects us from the greatest fear. Such time will also come [when] clouds of fear would spread in all the four directions. You will face the frightening display of destruction on a large scale. There will be a market of death everywhere in the world. There will be big accidents, earthquakes will take place. These high buildings which you see will crash like playing cards and the people living in them will die suddenly. There will be numerous untimely deaths. There will be numerous sinful souls, subtle bodied ghosts and spirits will wander all over the world. They will search for a support (body). So, you should take care of yourself a lot.

If you have even a little remembrance at that time, if you will have even a little practice of the soul conscious stage, you will be saved from that fear. He, whose master is God, how can a storm or a hurricane stop him? When the children show courage, God helps them. The author is solely responsible for this article. ## Roads riddled with potholes

The Chennai Corporation to relay the Arcot Road stretch from Alwarthirunagar to Vadapalani in July, but inaction by the civic body has left the road with many potholes, leaving residents and motorists in the lurch. The recent rain has caused the 4 km stretch unmotorable due to waterlogging in many places.

The entire stretch is filled with potholes and loose gravels, and more over dumped with construction debris in many places side by side. Parked lorries and unclaimed vehicles further reduce the road, making motorists more difficult to ride. One of the residents of Chowdury Nagar says that the condition has remained the same for month now, with no major repair work carried out despite repeated complaints.

CMRL said they will start laying roads on the stretch without waiting for GCC as conditions are worsening by the day. 'Water stagnation in low patches and continuous vehicle movement pose a challenge, but the work will be completed in the next few days,' said an official.

Metro rail work along Arcot Road, to connect Vadapalani and Porur, began five years ago, and commuting via the road has been a bumpy ride since then.

Posters plastered on walls creating an unpleasant view in P V Rajamannar Salai, K K Nagar. Due to the lack of regulation, the area contributes to a messy look. The area requires maintenance to prevent eyesores. Authorities must step in to restore the previous look. Locals are also encouraged to speak up about the same to notify the authorities for requesting regular maintenance.

Stroke cases rising among younger populations

Apollo Hospitals Chennai Expands Stroke Care Across the City with 9 Advanced Labs to Save Lives and Restore Hope One in Four Adults Above 25 at Risk, says doctors.

Dr. Srinivasan Paramasivam, Head of Neuro Endovascular Surgery at Apollo Hospitals, Greaves Lane, Chennai, said "The Apollo Advanced Stroke Network represents an organized and time-efficient response system to expedite advanced care for stroke patients. Our focus is on offering neuroendovascular treatments such as mechanical thrombectomy for ischemic stroke, and endovascular and microsurgical treatments for hemorrhagic stroke. The goal is simple — to save more lives and improve outcomes through faster, smarter intervention."

Dr. Satish Kumar, Senior Consultant, Apollo Speciality Hospitals, OMR, added, "The emerging stroke treatments that we see today are time-dependent. We presently have 4.5 hours as the recognized time limit to initiate an intravenous thrombolysis in an indicated patient. Any sudden neurological development should be considered as a warning sign of stroke. Symptoms such as sudden vision loss, facial drooping, sudden weakness or numbness of one sided arm/leg, speech disturbances and instability are key to understanding the condition. Awareness about stroke, the importance of time in stroke management and stroke prevention methods are abysmally low in our community. "Every minutes counts in stroke". We are pleased to join hands with stroke survivors to help create more awareness around this critical concern."

Soorasamharam at Vadapalani Murugan Temple

On the occasion of Kanda Sashti festival, a Soorasamharam was held at the Vadapalani Murugan Temple. A large number of devotees participated with great enthusiasm and had darshan of the Lord Murugan.

The Mahakantha Sashti festival at Vadapalani Murugan Temple in Chennai began on the 21st with the procession of Varasidhi Vinayakar on a mooshikavahana. The first lathi charge was held on the 22nd.

In addition, pujas and a procession of the Swami Veedi are held every morning and evening. The main day of the festival, the Latcharchanai, is celebrated during the peak hours. Following that, the Tirthavari Utsavam was held. At 5.30 pm, the elephant was sent out to kill the elephant, Surapatman.

Monday night, the Surasamharam was celebrated. The scene of the Lord Muruga, surrounded by a large herd of deer, and the killing of the Surapatman, who came in the form of an elephant, a lion, and a goat, was spectacular.

Tuesday, the wedding ceremony of Valli Devasena Sametha Subramaniam is being held. After the wedding ceremony, devotees are invited to write a prayer to Lord Muruga. A receipt for the amount paid and gifts will be provided. A wedding reception will be held at 8 p.m.
